We welcome one another to YFGM this June in Norwich and look forward to sharing this weekend together. We would like to welcome Kat Richter who joins us from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting.

10/21 Planning Weekend Report

Kathleen Bright and Rajit Gholap have presented their experiences as newcomers to planning weekend, we thank them for their informative, amusing and reflective report.

10/22 Jordans YF(GM Free) Event 2

We have heard from Niel Ryan, Sophie Lowendakl and Cáit Gould who have introduced and will facilitate a planned informal fun event aimed at people of a YFGM age-range. The event is planned to take place at Jordans Meeting House and Youth hostel on July 23rd-25th.

We are happy to adopt and support this as an official YFGM event and look forward to future exciting gatherings. We approve the budget, and attach it to these minutes.

10/23 Quaker Life Rep. Council Report

We have heard a report from Helen Percy of her feedback from a recent Quaker Life Rep. Council meeting held in Woodbrooke on the 19th-21st March. We thank Helen for this report.

10/24 Quaker Business Method 'on the road' Project

Nick Rendle of Quintessential, our eldering body, has introduced a plan which has been developed to bring 'Introduction to Quaker Business Method' workshops 'on the road' for Area Meetings around the UK. Quintessential will be coordinating this in the name of YFGM and will be looking for volunteer who may wish to help facilitate these workshops.

Following on from minute 09/48 when we affirmed our strong desire for Quintessential to put on an event to bring the Quaker Business Method to other friends within the Quaker and non Quaker society we confirm our support to take this further. We feel it is a valuable gift to share and ask that Quintessential offer to join local and Area Meetings sending information out in the August and Christmas Area Meeting Clerks meetings, and follow up as appropriate to their requests.

We also ask them to collate a list of volunteers during this weekend who can help out with workshop requests from Area Meetings, and to look into liaising with Yearly Meeting Group Planning Committee 2011 to incorporate our work in this area in the Yearly Meeting gathering in Canterbury in summer 2011.

10/25 YF(GM Free) feedback report

We have heard from Ged Manning on the YF(GM Free) event held at Osmotherly Meeting House from March 5th-7th 2010. This weekend offered the chance to relax and bond in a small group. We thank those involved in organising the event and Ged for giving this report.

10/26 Spirituality Event

Sam Barnett-Cormack has led us in a short small-group discussion session on the Quaker Testimony of simplicity. He hopes to organise an event on all 4 Quaker testimonies. We recognise that this is an opportunity to live adventurously, and are excited by the event. We support Sam's exploration of the possibilities including:

1. Which locations and formats might be best suited.
2. Working with Woodbrooke and/or Quintessential.
3. The potential for outreach within the event.

And to bring his findings back to us at September planning weekend.

10/27 Accounts

Our Finance Officer, Eleanor Coss has presented us with the 2009 accounts. We approve these accounts which have been signed off by our trustees to be submitted to the charity commission. We thank Finance Committee, our coordinator, and the independent examiner for preparing accounts so stupendously.

10/28 Friends World Committee for Consultation Global Change Consultation

Ruth Wood has presented Friends' World Committee for Consultation's procedure for a global change consultation, and asked us if we feel that Young Friends have a specific response to global change.

We feel that a one day event dedicated to the questions posed by FWCC is the most appropriate way of finding this response. We feel that in order to maximise accessibility and breadth of response, electronic communication, (if necessary) consultation with other young friends would be beneficial.

We ask that Ruth finds a group of volunteers willing to organise such an event, bringing names to our October YFGM, to be nominated on the same basis as an event committee.

10/29 Coordinators Support Group

Rachael Swancott has been serving as our coordinators support group since April Planning weekend.

10/30 Spirituality Session: Young Quaker Responses to Alcohol & Drugs

Quintessential have led us in a thought provoking, reflective session exploring our relationship with Alcohol and Drugs. The questions posed provoked discussion, and for worship sharing in small groups. This offered us the chance to share a range of experiences from within and outside the society.

10/31 Speaker Session: 'Reinterpreting Quaker Values in the 21st Century: A discussion with the New Jordans Programme'.

Cáit Gould and David Matthews presented a brief overview of the actions of Quakers over the last two centuries. They asked us to consider our action today. We thank Cáit and David for this thought provoking and enjoyable session.

10/32 Minute of Record – Committee Co-option

10/38 Clerks Offering

Our weekend in Norwich has been blessed by beautiful weather, friendship, a woven net of fellowship and a deepening of the spirit. Whilst our business sessions have been jam-packed, they have been filled with heartening news of our activities and plans we hope through sharing the Quaker business method we come to be more than the sum of our parts. Four events were discussed this weekend, from an informal weekend at Jordans, to the 'Quaker Business' on the road project. We had a lively discussion on simplicity, as well as a thought provoking spatiality session on our response to the issue posed by alcohol and drugs.

Our speaker session was a talk from the New Jordans programme, who led us in an enlightening exploration of Quaker action in the 21st Century. We dressed up for a 1920's themed evening on Saturday night, learnt to ballroom dance (with mixed success) and played parlour games. We prepared for Meeting for Worship with some simple singing and some far less simple physical activities.

This weekend we say goodbye to 3 of our trustees; Ellie, Maud and Cáit. In their dedication and good humour they have contributed immeasurably to our community. So thank you Cáit, for your many much needed reminder emails and your excited – Cáit – noises, to Ellie for your sound financial advice and for being an accounts HERO! Maud, thank you for reigning in the trustees, and making OOO more fun and shorter. And please come back soon.

We tank all those who have worked so hard to make our gathering a success caterers, committee members and all attendees, and look forward to seeing each other in Liverpool in October.
