14.03 Appeal

Further to minute 12.42 we formally lay down the Cape Town Peace Centre as the YFGM Appeal. We extend the service of the current appeal committee members until May 2014 to finalise any financial or other details.

14.04 Reports

We heard from Jenny McCarthy about Europe and Middle East Young Friends (EMEYF). She attended their annual meeting in October 2013, where she learnt about the work of Quaker Council for European Affairs. Jenny is looking forward to attending the EMEYF gathering in April 2014 in Macedonia, and encouraged other young friends to get involved in the wider Quaker community in Europe.

Sophie Loewendahl gave us an update on the work of the Pollard and Dickson Trust, which provides funding for Friends experiencing hardship and for travelling in the ministry. Sophie informed us that the Pollard and Dickson Trust has recently merged with the Dant Trust, meaning that funding can now be given to attenders as well as members.

We heard from Sam Robinson about his experience as a newcomer to Planning Weekend in January. He told us about the differences attending a smaller gathering, and the insight he has gained into how YFGM weekends are organised. He now also has experience of dealing with a surplus of bananas and vigilance around candles.

Our finance trustee Alyn Still gave us an update on the budget. We were pleased to hear that the Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust has agreed to provide funding for a further three years. More information is attached to these minutes.

14.05 Co-options

This weekend the following people have been co-opted to serve on the named committees for the duration of the weekend:

COMMITTEE	CO-OPTED

Further to minutes 12.39 and 13.27, we authorise the closure of the accounts previously managed by the Employment Fund Treasurer, and the transfer of any remaining funds to the General Fund account.

We would like to thank the most recent Employment Fund Treasurer Paul Dodwell as well as previous Employment Fund Treasurers for the diligent work in managing these accounts throughout the years.

14.08 Clerks' Offering

We have gathered in Manchester Meeting House for February YFGM. We have enjoyed being in Manchester and having the opportunity to engage with other groups using the facilities, as well as creating a sense of our own community.

This weekend we have welcomed visiting speakers for our two main sessions.

Philip Austin from Northern Friends Peace Board (NFPB) spoke to us about the history of NFPB. We learnt that the group was formed prior to the start of the First World War, and did not expect to be a long term organisation. However it is encouraging to hear that not only is NFPB still running today, but that they have had a worde influence for a small group through their advertising campaigns and publication.

Imran Tyabji led a spirituality session on the theme of 'Spiritual Journeys'. He led us in exercises in mindful listening and creating a visual representation of our personal spiritual journeys. He encouraged us to consider spiritual seeking and action, and how these two aspects may interact in ourselves and others. The session provoked debate as we explored our different views of ourselves as Quakers.

On Saturday evening we enjoyed a ceilidh, with music by the one night only YFGM band. We were joined by new friends from the group of asylum seekers supported by Manchester Meeting and also from Friends of the Earth.

We have enjoyed a variety of Special Interest Groups, both from visiting speakers and from within YFGM;

- Nick Franklin - Church Action on Poverty
- Rici Marshall - Canterbury Commitment Group
- Sophie Lowendahl - Ceilidh Band Practise
- Rebecca Mattingly - Yearly Meeting Gathering
- Lizzie Roper - Unitarianism
- Imran Tyabji - Spiritual Journeys
- Outreach Committee - Outreach Ideas
- Nominations Committee - Thoughts about nominations
- Elizabeth Coleman - Supporting Asylum Seekers

Through the music we make, the conversations we have and the experiences we share, we create a community of friends. We look forward to seeing friends again at our exciting May YFGM at Woodbrooke Quaker Study Centre to further strengthen the ties that bring us together. We encourage members of YFGM to bring ideas for YFGM to Planning Weekend in March at Brentford and Isleworth Meeting House.

YFGM Finance Update

Where were we?

In October YFGM agreed a budget for 2014 with expenditure forecast to be much higher than income. This was because the body which provides much of YFGM's funding, the Joseph

Rowntree Charitable Trust (JRCT), were changing their criteria for grants and we did not expect to qualify for funding.

The impact of this was a forecast deficit of £35,960

What's changed?

Our funding bid was considered by the JRCT earlier than initially expected, and before their new criteria took effect. They have agreed a grant of £26,593/year for three years from 2014.

Where are we now?

With the additional income the forecast deficit is greatly reduced to £9,367. This would leave our reserves at £30,633 at year end. This is equivalent to approximately 6 months of expenditure.

Fundraising will continue, both for in-year funding and to investigate options for the longer term.
