

Young Adult Friends Steering Group Representative

Up to 3 years

Purpose

To engage with the steering group helping to develop the work of the upcoming Engaging Young Adult Friends Coordinator (job title to be confirmed!) in Britain Yearly Meeting

Duties

Attend meetings of the steering group

To critically assess the programme's progress and report to YFGM (this is part of the steering group's duties)

Be part of supporting and monitoring the programme; agreeing criteria for evaluating the success of the programme and to communicate to this to QLCC; maintaining an overview of relationships with key local and national stakeholders.

Act as primary point of contact to receive agendas, papers and minutes from the steering group and to communicate appropriate information to others in YFGM.

To be involved in (and encourage others also to become involved in) key areas of the group's work.

What you could gain from the role

A deeper understanding of the work of Britain Yearly Meeting, as an organisation, in particular the growing work on engaging Young Adult Friends.

Developing contacts elsewhere in Britain Yearly Meeting.

Influencing the direction of BYM's engagement with Young Adults

Skills required

An interest to become involved in the group's key area of work.

Ability and willingness to develop ideas with and shape the role of the employee

To be able to represent the views of YFGM to the group and of the group back to YFGM.

Ability to relay information about opportunities for other members of YFGM to become involved in the group's work.

Time commitment

Unknown as the steering group hasn't yet been set up. Probably 4-6 meetings a year, some probably by Skype, and following emails and responding.

The public report on the consultation with Young Adult Friends in Britain is available to read here <http://www.quaker.org.uk/children-and-young-people/young-quakers#eyaf>